Worth Working For
As the studio girl was going home a frayed old woman stopped her.
"Please," said the woman, "will you give me a little money to buy a cup of tea?"

The girl looked at her hard. Her eyes were watery. She seemed destitute.

"If you will go to my studio with me," she said to her, "I will make you a cup of tea. I will with pleasure."

The old woman looked hard at her. "I suppose," she said, "you have to walk up a good many flights of stairs to get to your studio?"

"I do," said the girl.

The old woman shook her head. "I can't walk up stairs," she sighed, "I never could."

"Could you walk if I gave you a sip of something else?" asked the girl.

"I could," she faltered.

The Talking Tree
An alumnus of St. Stephen's college said of the late Bishop George F. Seymour: "Bishop Seymour founded St. Stephen's and we treasure here many anecdotes about his wardenship. The bishop was fond of trees, and one day, walking with a young lady, he pointed out to her some of the fine trees in the neighborhood. She professed great interest and delight. She cried: 'How the noble aspect of beautiful trees stirs up the keenest emotions of the soul!' Then, patting a great, rough trunk she went on, 'You superb oak, what would you say to me if you could talk?' The bishop smiled. 'I believe I can be the interpreter,' he murmured. 'He would probably say, 'I beg your pardon, miss; I am a beech.'"

Pinnacle and Popularity
"Is Tompkins' wife popular?"
"Very. She can create more jealousy and make more enemies than any woman in town."

AMALGAMATED LEADS BIG SLUMP

Stocks Slumped All Along the Line—Market Entirely Unsupported—Can't Induce Public to Invest—Tired Holders Continue to Unload.

(By H. H. Bru Co.)
GLOBE, August 7.—Today's market opened a fractional point above yesterday's close, advancing on an average one-half point, and then slumped, headed by Amalgamated, from three to five points, striking the lowest levels that the market has reached for the past year or more. This slump comes from no support being given to the market, but left to take care of itself from the bear raid. Standard Oil interests, it is reported, are also bearing the market. The government's attitude against the large corporate interests seems to have cleared the track for this decline. The public apparently cannot be induced to enter the market regardless of prices and inducements, and the fight is between the larger interests and cliques. Tired holders continue to sell their stocks at any prices offered.
We would advise holders to hold on to their stocks and that investors stay out of the market until more settled conditions prevail. All stocks are cheap but the market is very unsettled. Money remained around 2 1/2 to 3 per cent.
No attention is given to the curb stocks, and the interest seems to be directed toward the larger issues.

YESTERDAY'S CLOSE ALMOST A PANIC

No One Can Tell Where the Bottom Will Be—Attitude of the Administration Towards the Corporations Said to Be the Cause of Liquidation.

(By J. N. Kinsey)
GLOBE, August 7.—Boston: Yesterday's close resembled a panic. Stops and exhausted margins swelled the liquidation and at times the market was completely demoralized. The selling has been the extreme, but no one will tell where the bottom will be. They will probably go lower tomorrow unless the metal takes a brace. The market after opening fairly strong, shortly afterwards began to break and there was continued and persistent liquidation with few or no rallies until shortly before the close. The causes for the present uneasiness have not been removed and it is a question when sentiment will change. We would rather sell and get in the market higher up on a more secure outlook.
Shortly after the opening yesterday liquidation started on the leading railroad stocks and the entire market was carried down on an average of four points. Union Pacific, the favorite among the bull operators, sold off six points, closing at $132.12. Amalgamated Copper, the favorite Standard Oil issue, was carried down to $76.37, the lowest it has been for over a year. Superior & Pittsburg broke in the afternoon and closed weak at $15.

Thirty-four dollars was the low mark reached by Old Dominion late in the afternoon, but it rallied to $35.25 at the close. Arizona Commercial was also hard hit and closed weak at $15.50. Globe Consolidated weakened on Duluth selling and closed at $12.75 bid. Superior & Boston was not affected by the recent ore strike and was offered freely at $2.75.

Unique Festival
An odd festival is held annually in Brussels. Every wife undresses her husband and puts him to bed. And the next day the husbands invite their wives' relations and entertain them with the utmost generosity. This ceremony was instituted in commemoration of a siege at which the women stipulated before capitulation that they should be allowed to carry with them their children and whatever burden they were able to bear. This being granted by the enemy, each wife carried her husband off on her shoulder.—New York Press.
